BAFUNCS

British Association of Former United Nations Civil Servants

We invite you to join our community!

Who we are

BAFUNCS is an association of around 750 members who are former employees of the UN System and the Bretton Woods institutions and their partners, living in or with links to the UK. There are regional branches within the UK and an Overseas branch for members living outside the UK.

What we offer

- Opportunities to meet other retirees and share UN experiences.
- Regular updates via newsletters, bulletins and a dedicated website.
- A variety of informal social events at regional level, and an annual reunion.
- Information and support on ways to access health care, on bereavement, and on relevant organisations in the UK.
- Eligibility for assistance from the BAFUNCS Benevolent Fund.
